BULLETIN 2022-021

December 9, 2022

TO: EVERY ENTITY THAT SELLS FULLY-INSURED STUDENT HEALTH INSURANCE PLANS FOR SALE TO STUDENTS ATTENDING SCHOOL IN NEW MEXICO

RE: DATA CALL FOR FULLY-INSURED STUDENT HEALTH INSURANCE PLANS

Pursuant to NMSA 1978 §59A-4-3, the Superintendent orders any entity that sells fully-insured student health insurance plans to students attending school in New Mexico to report the following:

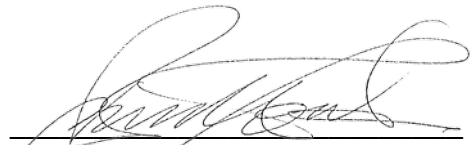

1. Company name;
2. NAIC company number;
3. Market type;
4. Product type;
5. SERFF form approval number(s) of any plans sold to New Mexico students;
6. Number of covered lives under each plan with:
 - a. students and adult dependents, and
 - b. dependent children under the age of 19; and
7. Names of any institutions that serve as the primary policyholder for group plans.

Do not report plans or policies issued through out-of-state institutions to students from New Mexico attending out-of-state schools. Additionally, do not include reporting on self-funded student health plans.

This information shall be submitted by close of business on February 3, 2023 to Rolanda Pana at rolanda.pana@state.nm.us. Failure to submit complete and correct information by this deadline may result in a penalty pursuant to NMSA 1978 § 59A-1-18. The template for submitting the data, including instructions, is attached to this Bulletin.

Please direct any questions to Paige.Duhamel@osi.nm.gov.

ISSUED this 9th day of December, 2022.
